THE LITTLE TOWN WITH A BIG HEART

December 2024

Town Talk

It is difficult to imagine we're nearing the end of 2024! Time has flown right back into the holiday season.

We sincerely wish everyone a safe, beautiful and blessed Christmas and New Years celebration!

Last month, Carrie Wilson resigned her position as Rockvale Town Clerk. We definitely want to thank Carrie for her years of hard work and dedication to our town. We also wish Carrie the best of everything in her future!

With Carrie's resignation, the town will be interviewing prospective candidates for the clerk position. Julie Daigneault will be interim clerk until the position is filled. You may occasionally see a notice on the front door of town hall indicating that interviews are in progress. We appreciate your patience as we transition through this process.

November's election has brought some new and familiar names to our town positions. Congratulations to Mayor Elect Justin Hart, and congratulations to Trustee Elects Paula Walker, Brandon Mehring and Wendell Helton. Each of these elected positions will be sworn in during the first board meeting in January, 2025. Please join us in welcoming them!

2025!
